

Dear SkillsUSA Tennessee TECHSPO Exhibitor,

On behalf of SkillsUSA Tennessee Postsecondary, I would like to personally thank you for participating as an exhibitor in our SkillsUSA Tennessee TECHSPO and Meet the Employer event at our State Leadership Development Conference (SLDC) in Chattanooga, Tennessee on April 1-2, 2019.

The SkillsUSA SLDC is comprised of 2,500+ of the best and brightest Career and Technical Education students from high schools and colleges across Tennessee competing in over 100 events for the chance to advance to National SkillsUSA competition in Louisville, Kentucky in June.

Participating in the TECHSPO is a unique opportunity for you to recruit employees, put your products in the hands of teachers and students who will share them with their peers, and meet key decision-makers in CTE as well as leaders in business and industry.

As a participant in the TECHSPO, you may also participate in our exclusive Meet the Employer event with all college students and high school seniors who will be prepared to show off their interview skills and share their resumes!

We do have limited space and opportunities. Once we have reached capacity, we will not be able to accept additional exhibitors for the 2019 SkillsUSA Tennessee TECHSPO. All rates are Tax Deductible and SkillsUSA Tennessee Postsecondary will provide you a tax letter for your accounting records.

Exhibitor price points, $500 Corporate/ For Profit, $250 Nonprofit Business/ Education Institution.

Thank you again for your support, you truly are helping to “Grow Our Future Workforce” through your investment in SkillsUSA Tennessee!

Sincerely,

Joy Rich

Director of Experiential Learning, Tennessee Board of Regents
